Make the most of your summer

Culture takes centre stage in Edinburgh. Especially in summer when the city is bursting at the seams with people coming to take in the sights and sounds of the festival season. Between June and September our city is home to some of the most globally dynamic festivals in the world and we want you to be a part of it.

How can I get involved?

Attend a course at Regent Edinburgh. It's as simple as that. With every course you'll have the opportunity to saturate your senses by attending the social calendar we have lined up for this summer. Everyone will be able to participate with three activities a day encompassing the best the city has to offer; some of them are completely take part in!

How does this help my English?

Have you ever tried to get your photo taken with a living statue or asked a street musician for the name of that beautiful song you'd just heard? Well now's your chance to find new ways of challenging yourself and the best part of it is our staff will be on hand to help you out if you get stuck.

But first you'll need the tools for the job and that's where our confidence inspiring courses can help you!

"As a result of the social programme at lunch times and in the evenings I feel that I am now more confident in approaching people to start conversations."
- Magdalena

"I think this school is a good place to study English as there are lot of very good teachers. They are friendly and work hard. Also, the many different activities make it possible to practise English you have learnt" - Hao

"Studying in the UK was a very good experience. Thank you for your assistance and the professionalism of the team. I recommend your school for anyone wanting to study English."- Sonia

Which course is for me?

Chose a course that offers you something new.

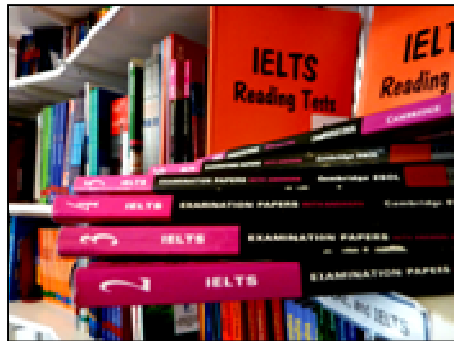

Our English World Course offers a perfect starting point for those new to the language. In fact this course caters for anyone, from beginner to advanced, with a focus on improving your ability to communicate in real life scenarios. Practice the four main skills of the English language with added emphasis on both spoken interactions and accuracy of the spoken word.

IELTS preparation takes things a step further. This courses provides students with the skills to approach the IELTS exam in an effective manner; ensuring they can showcase their abilities to their fullest extent during the challenging exam.

Why do a challenging exam in your holidays?

If you are looking for a qualification to add to your CV or evidence of your abilities for your employer then a good mark in a comprehensive exam, covering the four skills, will prove to them you are a suitable candidate. Regent Edinburgh will provide the support you need to succeed in the exam and achieve your goal.

IELTS is very popular in the summer so you'll have plenty of international classmates to meet and spend time with on the social events. Luckily for all our students, our school acts as Edinburgh's test centre so you can even sign up to take the exam once you have finished the preparation course.

Why choose Edinburgh?

An aspect of a student's tuition that our staff pay particular attention to is that each is an individual with needs specific to their lifestyle. To that effect Regent Edinburgh has special classes to accommodate those who wish to attend mosque, host families who can cater for celiac diets and celebrations for Chinese New Year. In short, we want our students to feel they can be themselves and live their lives while benefitting from our British Council accredited courses.

- Special Language Focus Classes allow students the option to choose a special interest course specific to their needs - we always offer exam preparation choices as well as a selection of other options.
- Small class sizes; a maximum 12 students per class, with an average of 9 per class, means that students receive a lot of personal attention and for those wishing the extra attention to detail there is always the option of 1:1 lessons.
- Year-Round accommodation include the options of Homestay and ensuite Summer Residence paired with luxury flats and hotels. The clean, convenient and friendly accommodation ensures every student feels confident in their surroundings from day one.
- Open throughout the year - We only close on the 25th, 26th December and the 1st January, otherwise we're open for business as usual on all other public holidays to prevent disruption to our students courses.
